

Gayll Morrison

Gayll is an artist living in Snoqualmie, Washington. She was born in Calgary Alberta and attended the Alberta College of Art before getting completely side-tracked with a 20 year career in software engineering. Now retired she has the time to get back to her long neglected pursuit of oil painting.

Snoqualmie Falls Oil on Canvas 18" x 24"

As an oil painter Gayll explores aspects of light, space, and water in what are often landscapes, sometimes abstract, and occasionally both.

Gayll is a founding member of the Art Gallery of SnoValley and a member of the Mt. Si Artist Guild.

You can find Gayll's work and more about this artist on:

www.gayllery.biz