

Lynnea Mattson, "Shhhhh", Watercolor

Lynnea Mattson

Lynnea started her adventure with watercolor in 2005. She believes in continued education by taking classes and workshops from various artists that will challenge and present her with new ideas. She has been teaching watercolor for the last 13 years and currently is a teacher at the Cloud 9 Art School. Lynnea loves to paint in a realist manner to bring her subjects to life but is willing to loosen up where necessary.
