

Necklaces and Earrings, Monica Phillips, Jeweler

Monica Phillips

Monica Phillips is a local Issaquah artist who has a love of anything glass. She learned how to fuse glass in Northern California and participated in many shows in the Bay Area prior to moving to Issaquah. When she started working with dichroic glass, she made so much of it that I prompted her to learn traditional silversmithing techniques in order to give the glass the setting it deserves. Her earrings, pendants and rings are handmade using fine silver (.999), sterling silver (.925), and gold-filled metals, along with dichroic fused glass or cubic zirconia “stones”. Her goal is to make one-of-a-kind jewelry pieces that are comfortable, and to be worn every day. Every day is special in its own way, life your life!
