

Sally Rackets, Poppies in the Tuscan Sun

Sally Rackets

“Art is my way of connecting with my Creator. I’m inspired by the beauty found in both nature and people, as I enjoy drawing and painting what I see while celebrating His creation in my everyday life.”

Sharing the soft side of realism by understating her work, Sally invites the viewer to get involved, searching for the story within each creative piece.

A resident of Snoqualmie since 2003, Sally has been actively involved promoting the arts and artists in the Valley. Currently serving as a Chair of Snoqualmie Arts Commission, she was instrumental in developing Storefront Galleries in which empty storefronts were staged with art. This paved the way for the Finally Friday Art & Wine Walks in downtown Snoqualmie, as she became a part owner of the Art Gallery of SnoValley with other members of the Mt. Si Artist Guild. She has also organized Artists in Action during Railroad Days and is currently working with Fall City Arts on the Snoqualmie River Arts Tour and Autumn Art Show.

Born and raised in Texas, Sally and her husband, Steve, met in college where she double majored in Commercial and Fine Art. They have three grown, married children and take great pleasure in their five wonderful grandchildren.
